HOME SECRETARIAT.

NOTIFICATION.

Bangalore, dated the 17th August 1965.

S. O. 3141.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (4) of rule 30 of the Defence of India Rules, 1962 and in supersession of the Defence of India (Conditions of Detention) (Mysore) Order, 1963, as amended from time to time, the Government of Mysore hereby makes the following Order, namely :—

1. Title.—This Order may be called the Defence of India (Conditions of Detention) (Mysore) Order, 1965.

2. Definitions.—In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) "Detaining Authority" means the officer authorised under the rules to order detention ;

(b) "Detenu" means a person in respcet of whom an order of detention has been passed by the Government under clause (b) of sub-rule (1) of rule 30 of the Defence of India Rules, 1962 ;

(c) "District Magistrate" means—

(i) in the Bombay Area, the Executive District Magistrate, and

(ii) in the other Areas and Coorg District, the Additional District Magistrate ;

(d) "District Surgeon" means the District Surgeon of the District in which the detenu is detained ;

(e) "Government" means the Government of Mysore;

(f) "Rules" means the Defence of India Rules,—1962.

(g) "Superintendent" means—

(i) in the case of a detenu detained in a Police Lock-up, the Superintendent of Police of the District in which the person is detained, and

(ii) in the case of a detenu detained in a Jail or Sub-Jail or a Lock-up or other place, the person in-charge of the Jail, Sub-Jail, Lock-up or other place in which the detenu is detained

3. Place of Detention.—(1) A detenu shall be detained in a Police Lock-up, Central Jail, District Jail or such other place as may be specified by Government by means of a written order.

(2) The detaining authority ordering detention under the Rules', may specify in the order any one of the said places for detention of the detenu and may further order that any detenu may be removed from one such place of detention to another.

4. Classification.—(1) Detenus shall be divided into two classes, namely, Class-I and Class-II. Detenus shall be assigned to Class-I or Class-II having regard to the state of health, education, status and mode of living before detention. A detenu detained in a Police Lock-up, shall betreated in the same manner as an undertrial prisoner.

(2) The classification of each detenu shall be made by the detaining authority at the time of ordering detention in accordance with the principles specified in sub-rule (1).

5. Accommodation and furniture.—(1) Detenus shall be separated from other prisoners and housed, as far as possible separately from others. Where possible, detenus in the same class may be kept in the same dormitary or enclosure.

(2) The Lock-up time for the detenu shall be two hours later than that for Convicted Prisoners. Minimum force that is absolutely necessary may be used, if any detenu refuses to be locked-up. The detenu may be allowed to mix freely with other detenus of the same enclosure. The Superintendent may, however, confine any particular detenu separately if he considers it desirable on grounds of health or for any other reasons.

(3) Class–I detenus shall be provided at Government cost with a canvas easy chair, a sitting chair, a cot, a matress, a small table, a small almirah, a cloth stand, and a commode with pan. Lights will be provided at nights till 10 P. M.

6. Clothing and bedding :—(1) Detenus shall be allowed to use their own clothes and bedding. The Superintendent, may, in his discretion, permit the supply of extra clothes and bedding to a detenu by his/her friends and/or relatives or at the detenu's own expense. Where the detenus have not sufficient clothing of their own and have neither funds to buy it, nor friends ro relatives to supply it, they may be supplied at Government cost, with clothing on the scales mentioned in Table–A below and bedding on the scales mentioned in Table–B. The pattern of this clothing shall be defferent from that prescribed for convicts and the cloth shall be without the Jail Regulation stripes.

1. Hot water bath daily.
2. Washing soap.—2 Ozs. per week.
3. Toilet soap—2 cakes per month.

8. Supply of funds.—(1) A detenu, may with the previous sanction of the detaining authority, receive from a specified relative or friend at intervals of not less than a month, funds not exceeding Rs. 30/-per month if he/she is a Class-I detenu and Rs. 20/-per month, if he/she is a class II detenu and may spend these funds or a similar sum from his/her own private funds on such objects and in such manner as may be permitted by the Superintendent. In cases in which for want of funds any detenu is compelled to go without any amenity which the other detenus enjoy, such amenities may, if considered absolutely necessary by the Superintendent, be supplied to such detenu at Government cost.

(2) All funds received by a detenu under clause (1) shall be kept by the Superintendent and spent by him on behalf of the detenu concerned.

(3) Amounts in excess of the those prescribed in clause (1) may be received by the Superintendent on behalf of detenu but they shall not be spent in any month beyond the limits laid down in the said clause.

9. Cash Allowance to detenus.—Detenus shall be granted by the Inspector-General of Prisons a cash allowance of Rs. 5 per month to cover expenses on purchase of articles of daily requirements like tooth brush and shaving materials.

10. Tasks.—Detenus may be assigned task by the Superintendent having regard to their state of health, physical and mental capacity, character and antecedents and may be paid remuneration for their labour at such rates as may be prescribed by the Inspector-General of Prisons, State of Mysore.

11. Searches.—Detenus and the rooms, wards or cells in which they are accommodated shall be searched not less than once a week, or earlier if the Superintendent considers it necessary. A detenu shall be searched immediately after admission and thereafter, before and after every interview with any person other than a police officer. Special precaution shall be taken to make the searches thorough and the fact that the search has been made shall be noted in the report book of the officer making the search. The search shall be made by a Jailor, Deputy Jailor, Jail Guard or such other officer as may be authorised in this behalf by the Superintendent, provided that for searching the person of women detenus women officers only shall be employed.

12. Interviews :—(a) Except with the written permission of the Superintendent, no detenu shall be allowed to interview any person other than a police officer.

(b) The number of interviews shall not ordinarily exceed two per fortnight. In the event of the detenu being seriously ill or the serious illness or death of a near relative, interviews at shorter intervals may be permitted.

(c) Not more than three visitors shall be allowed to remain present simultaneously, at any one interview, except in the case of near relatives when the number may be increased to five excluding children below twelve.

(d) Application for interview from persons other than police officers shall be made to the Superintendent in Form 'A' appended to this Order. The Superintendent shall be competent, subject to any special directions that may be issued by Government, to allow or to refuse an interview.

(e) When on interview is refused, the fact shall be reported by the Superintendent to the District Magistrate. The District Magistrate on receiving the report, may, if he considers it proper, permit an interview which has been refused.

(f) The Superintendent shall appoint the time, place and duration of each interview and shall not ordinarily allow an interview to continue for more than one hour with a near relative or half an hour with a person other than a near relatives.

(g) Every interview shall take place in the presence and within the hearing of a Jail Officer attached to the place of detention, who may terminate it at any time, if in his opinion the conversation is detrimental to the public intereest or safety.

(h) After an interview is over or terminated, the officer present at the interview shall warn both the detenu and the visitor that future interviews are liable to be prohibited if the visitor indulges in any publicity on behalf of the detenu.

(i) The Superintendent may, for special reasons permit additional interviews in excess of the number permissible under sub-clause (b).

(j) Interview by the detenu with a legal practitioner may be permitted in connection with any pending cases of the detenu or with his detention.

(k) A detenu may with the permission of the detaining authority be allowed to see or to communicate with the members of his/her family or other persons concerned once or twice or oftener, if the Superintendent considers it necessary to enable him/her to arrange for the management of his/her property or other family affairs. Such interviews shall not ordinarily be refused if sought within a period not exceeding two months from the date of detention and shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this clause as regards place, duration and conditions of the interviews and the poroceedings shall be strictly confined to the objects for which the interview is permitted.

13. Police Interviews, Photographs and Finger Prints :— (i) The detaining authority may by general or special order authorise any police officer not below the rank of an Inspector either singly or with another police officer to interview a detenu.

(ii) The police officers so authorised, may, with the permission of the Superintendent, interview the detenus in their cells or wards.

(iii) While visiting any cell or ward or room, every police officer shall be accompanied by such escort as the Superintendent considers necessary for his safety. The escort shall, if the police officer, so requires, stand out of ear-shot, but within sight while he is speaking with a detenu.

(iv) The police officer or officers so authorised may, with the permission of the Superintendent, interview a detenu in the ordinary interview room, with or without any officer attached to the place of detention being present.
